DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been filed in parent Application No. 10/724,317, filed on 11/26/03.

Drawings

2. The drawings were received on 9/23/08. These drawings are acceptable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 26-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because they do not fall within one of the four statutory categories of invention. Supreme Court precedent¹ and recent Federal Circuit decisions² indicate that a statutory “process” under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to another statutory category (such as a particular apparatus), or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing. While the instant claim recites a series of steps or acts to be performed, the claim neither transforms underlying subject matter nor is positively tied to another statutory category that accomplishes the claimed method steps, and therefore does not qualify as a statutory process. For example the picture decoding method including steps of outputting, extracting and storing is of sufficient breadth that it would be reasonably interpreted as a series of steps completely performed mentally, verbally or without a machine. The Applicant has provided no explicit and deliberate definitions of "outputting", "extracting" or "storing" to limit the steps.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

5. Claims 26-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Applicant's admitted prior art (AAPA).

AAPA, in Figures 17-25, discloses the same picture decoding apparatus and method for decoding a bitstream as specified in claims 26-31 of the present invention, comprising outputting a decoded picture by decoding a coded picture (e.g. 509-510) included in the bitstream (e.g. Input picture); outputting a filtered picture by performing a filtering process 512 on the decoded picture; extracting filtering application information (Fig. 24) from the bitstream, the filtering application information indicating, on a picture-by-picture basis, which one of the decoded picture before the filtering process (i.e. 511 to 501) and the decoded picture after the filtering process 512 is outputted for a display process; and storing, in a memory 501, the decoded picture after the filtering process 512 as a reference picture, and outputting the decoded picture before the filtering process (i.e. 511 to 501) in the case where the decoded picture is the reference picture and the filtering application information indicates, as the picture for the display process, the decoded picture before the filtering process 512.

With respect to claims 27-31, AAPA also discloses storing, in the memory, the decoded picture (e.g. 509-510) after the filtering process 512 as a reference picture, and outputting the decoded picture after the filtering process 512 in the case where the decoded picture is the reference picture and the filtering application information indicates, as the picture for the display process, the decoded picture after the filtering process 512; and wherein the filtering application information is applied for a predetermined picture and each picture following the predetermined picture (Fig. 24).

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 26-31 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
